

PRECIS & COMPOSITION

2A

Title: freedom in education:
Its ~~It's~~ de-merits.

Indent the paragraph.

There are three schools of thought regarding freedom in education. The first favours complete freedom; ~~the~~ second, absolute authority and third says there should be freedom but given that, children should act right. ~~The~~ Author disagrees with third school of thought. ~~If~~ ^{if} children are free, they will not act right. It holds that education ~~have~~ ^{has} no positive purpose and only offers environment for growth, which undermines the importance of knowledge. Education must teach one necessary things which are pivotal to ~~existence~~ ^{existence}. Educators themselves need certain qualities which cannot result from impulse. Therefore, education must ~~provide~~ ^{provide} all the necessary qualities which ~~children~~ ^{children} cannot get for themselves on their own.

Idea is ok. Mistakes identified.