CSS-2019 - Precis -

Modern education theorists do not believe in treating children with love and attachments rather a chore. Students want to grow with sense of being important as individuals rather than a victim to country's love. Teachers can make students accept their opinion or by binding the relationship with interest without altering their psychological health. The suggestion is that teacher ought to teach as a hobby for ~~like~~ two hours rather than being burdened whole day. The affection and friendliness with students can ~~make teacher and student in a healthy relationship~~ ensure healthy student-teacher relationship.
