A woman with his two daughters came in front of Hazrat Aisha wife of holy prophet and asked for help. She found nothing in home. Except some date. She gave her dates to women. The women distributed these dates equally between her daughters. When her daughters had eaten dates.

Then she gone. When Holy prophet came to Hazrat Aisha house. She asked that incident holy prophet. Muhammed asked at the day of justice. Allah will give her home in heaven. Because their kindness for daughters

The Islam gives equal right to women as compared to man. In Islam women enjoy her rights as mother, daughters, sisters, wife. She is not consider inferior or sub-ordinate to man. Because Allah creates them equal. No one have superior to other. But just on the base of virtue. We created you in pairs that you gets comfort from each other (Holy Quran). They both are equal in front of Allah. Islam gives respect to women and protect their rights. and give them right of Economy, inheritance, choice of husband, spiritual right.

Firstly, world are take about the rights of women. Women faces difficulties in every field of life. They are treated as like a inferior subject. Man considered superior on. But Allah created equal every one. All are considered equal. Incent of superiority gives just on the base of virtue (al-Qur'an). The Europe who are a biggest supporter of female right. But in European women living a miserable. The every thought for the bare necessity of life. on the other hand Islam gives all facilities of life. in other religion women considered a cause of evil. but in Islam she is called 'mushafiq' who protect you evil. The Adam and Eva thought are guilty in Allah side. They both get punishment from Allah. Allah send both on earth. Allah never give superiority to Adam. on Eva. in the similar way Islam gives equal rights to women. in Islam men superior on women just to protect them. No for doing bad behaviour for her and violation - Allah considered both equally. They get reward for good conduct. They both get punishment for bad conduct (Al-Quran verses 2)

Secondly, before the advent of Islam women living a miserable life. They do not have any right of life. The Arabs treat women like an animal and considered them an object of sexual pleasure. They buried live girls. Because they considered girls are sign of shame or evil. The fathers of new born buried their daughters alive. Or when a daughter born. They feel like angry and thought to kill the sign of shame because you are doing wrong. Islam called women Rahmat for her father. Arabs make nuded dance of women in the vicinity of Kabal on their yearly yadewall. They do not give any right. They considered evil. Even in india women are burned with their husband's death body to destroy all evil.

They used women to resolve their quarrel or family dispute where they treated them like Charles Holy prophet who take care of daughters not disrespect her and give superior to son over her.
They will definitely with me in jannat in Christian religion their church fathers considered women as a reason of all evil. They do not give any right. Even they considered women as sexless in other world. They do not have soul. For instanc Franch brings a matter in 586 AD to discuss this matters either women have soul or not. either they have soul. So it's human or animal. at the end. they decided women have a soul. But they considered them (with) they are born for the comfort of man. Before Islam women do not have any right. They spend their lives with the rules of their male family members.

Come with next, Islam gives women a respectful status in society. She is getting a worthy place as a mother, daughter, sister and wife. As a mother women get status of heaven. Prophet says on the feet of your mother. But can create you in people that you can get peace or tranquility with each other. As a daughter women gets level of

"Rahmat" Holy prophet peace be upon show the level of daughter respect by showing that. He stand up from their seat when his daughter Fatima come and leave her seat for her daughter.
Hadrat Ayesha wife of holy prophet stated that a woman with her two daughter comes in her house and demanded charity. Hadrat Ayesha found nothing in house except some dates. She gave them. woman distributed these dates between her daughter equally. when her daughters eat. She stand up and go away. She told the whole incident Holy prophet. Holy prophet said at the day of justice her daughters protect us from the fire of hell. woman also enjoyed rights as a wife.
She gets mahr wearing gift and even part of her property.

Thirdly Islam rise the status of women. Gives some privileges that they do not have before the advent of Islam. in addition to Islam treated women as a human beings. Before Islam women living miserable life. For instance they buried alive. Arabs treated women as personal property. They treated with their own will. in Christianity Church Father declared women cause of every evil. They are just for pleasure of man. in Jews they also considered women a evil. But Islam gives rights to women. And end all these false concept. in Quran women declared a Mashead. She is protect her man from all evil. in addition to Islam called Daughter as a blessing. and care and respect of daughters are way of getting Jannat. Christian fathers said women are sexless in next hand. in contrast Allah said in Quran. Enter in heaven with your wives with delight.

(Holy Verse). Islam also stops violations prostitution, and other bad conduct that women faced.
Holy prophet combine her two fingers and said who take care his ~~two~~ daughters gives her education respect and basic necessity of life. He surely with me in Jannat like her fingers. This shows the high status of women in Islam.

Moreover Spiritual Rights.
Islam gives right to do her worship with their own will.
She has right to choice their religion with the own will. instead on the pressure of her husband or father. For instance. before Islam women do not have right of worship Islam gives special right with respect to worship special day. It is just for women. That shows the high high status of women in Islam For instance women have given special relaxation during pregnancy. She is allowed to ~~left~~ <sup>stop</sup> fasting. During nursing of their baby she is allowed to exclude fasting. Moreover after giving birth she has 40 days of relaxation in Namaz. In addition to in special days of women she also has relaxation from Namaz and fasting. No other religion gives such privilege to women. Even in European country women are not allowed maternal leaves. These all privileges are just given Islam. Which shows the high status of women in this religion.

Moreover Islam gives the rights of societal act. It allows women to get inheritance rights. Before Islam women do not have right of property. But Islam fix the share for women - in Father's property she gets one-half share if single. If other siblings are present then she gets two-third. and also gets one-eighth from her husband's property. In addition to she have right of economy (independent business). To fulfill the needs of her family. She allows to earn money for her and her family. For instance. Holy prophet peace be upon wife Hazrat Khadija was a famous and richest women of Arab. She owned her business independently. She helped her holy prophet peace be upon financially for preaching Islam. On the other hand before Islam advent and people of East and West both not allows women to go outside for work. After the death of husband the responsibility of children lying on mother. But they were not allow to go outside. Holy prophet peace be upon change this rule. Holy prophet peace be upon allowed women goes outside if necessary. Most of the holy prophet wives was widows at that time when the marriages of widow was haram. HAZRAT Hussain said. To help the poor and widows like a jihad on the way of Allah standing for prayer in night and fasting in days. In addition to women are allowed to buy her own property. Because when was strong economically she protected from all evils violence and inferiority. It makes women empowered. To rise the status of right.

in addition to special Surat for women in Islam Allah send special surat for women in Quran called Nissa (women). in which all types of right of women are mentioned it's a privilege for women because not any selective surat was send for men. it shows the high status of women in Islam.

Next come with merited rights. Islam gives authority to women to choose her husband. if they agree to marriage with the choose of her father. It also allows.
But no one forces her for marriage. for instance. A woman come from holy prophet peace be upon him and asked her father for a her for marriage Holy prophet peace be upon. Declared that marriage illegal. and allow her for marriage to their own choice (less the number of divorce before Islam man given divorce her in anger. and after that when he want to settlement Take her back in his house it shows the inferiority with women. Islam less the number of divorce and fix it three. Holy prophet peace be upon said. Muslims never hate his wives. He also declared wife are garments of husband and husband are of them. For instance. Garment Hides the evil of man. like this wife hide her husband and husband his wife mistake. more also the garments provide comfort They are comfort and peace of each other. in addition to garment shows the ostentatious which protects them both from evil (Quran)

The best of you are who are best for their wife. Give her basis necessity. Select those things for them which are like for yourself. This was the words of holy prophet peace be upon clothing

Khutba Hittul wida (عبد النبي) last speech of holy prophet on the occasion of pilgrimage on the place of Arafat. When he told the all rights of women. To be fearful in the matter of women from Allah (Holy Prophet). Next come with Khula. Islam allow women. if she does not want to leave her husband she gets khula from him. Before Islam number of marriage was not fixed. man could married many number as he likes. He treated women as a chattles and just as sexual object. Islam states this tradition and fixed marriage on 4. However man required a permission of wife for second marriage These all opportunity are just given Islam not other religion Western writer Henry David in his Book marriage in West and East write Women have no write of divorce or property in

Fourthly Political rights Islam gives women rights of vote since 1400 AD yes ago. while in Europe women gets this right near to 100 years ago. For instance. During the selection of Khilfa from Hazrat Usman and his campaign Hazrat Usman formed a community which go from house to house and takes the views of women. Women gives vote for hazrat usman and he was selected next Khalifa. He also appointed (~~finance minister~~) women in highest posts during his era.

Islam gives many privileges that was not given her before Islam. like Right to vote work independently, Education Business, Divorce, Choice of her husband, etc For instance First School of women was open in Hozat Ayecha House where women get education of holy Quran. This shows the status of women in Islam.

Moreover women as mothers gets more privileges than other religion. Heaven lying upon under the Feet of mother (Hidayat). The holy prophet peace be upon said a man came from him and said. who is worthy for my Good Holy prophet said your mother He said else holy prophet peace be upon said your mother. He said else Holy prophet said your Father. its shows the higher status of women. in addition to status of daughter. she (brings) take her Brother and Father in jannat Holy prophet told the high status of daughter. He said daughters are blessing of God. moreover, women as a wife complete the believe of her husband. - We created you from single man and women (Al-Quran). - Islam also decreased women as a <sup>source of</sup> peace for ~~men~~ her husband.

Next come with other religion. other religions do not protect the status of women. in other religion women considers a reason of every evil. in Christian religion it is considered that she represented the door of hills for her father. moreover, they said women are senseless in next word. For instance, in France, 586 AD a meeting held in which it is discussed either women have sex or not or if she has sex so either it is animal or human sex. at the end they declared women have sex but they are formed for the pleasure of man. in western countries they talk about women rights on every forum but in west women do not have any right. For instance at the age of 18 girls was kicked out from house to earn money for their expenditure. if she want to stay home she gives money/ part of house to her parents and meal or laundry expenditure she live liberally after eighteen. an other fact in west 1805 an act passed in assembly in which husband have permission to sold their wife and the price of wife was fixed six penny. in hindu religion women also suffer and faces many difficulties. They were burning alive in the death body of her husband. Jews also considered women a source of evil. But Islam protect women on every forum.

Status of women in Islam is high. Islam gives opportunity on every forum of life. Like economy, education, marriage inheritance, politics, and protect women on every forum. Islam does not give priority to man & does not show superiority. But it is due to protection and Safety of women. Because women faces many complications while men are stronger. So Islam makes man superior for protection of women. Islam also fix the mahar or other expenditure for women that's the responsibility of husband to pay them. Women considered a Queen of house in Islam. in which she spends her life with their own will. if she wants to live independent Islam also gave her permission. it shows the high status of women in Islam. Women faces some issue in muslim countries. That's ~~issues~~ are solve easily to follow the teaching of Islam.
