

Frailty, Thy Name is woman

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement: A woman is born with multitasking abilities but unfortunately social fabric has made her a fragile creature. Therefore, need of the hour is to spark woman's identity to help keep them safe and strong.

2- Contextualizing the perception of woman as a fragile creature

3- Why women ^{are considered} are considered as a frail?

a- Home chores done by woman stands nowhere

b- A woman is forced to focus on appearance rather than developing intellect

c- cultural influence on the role of woman

d- objectifying woman as a sex tool e- misperception of woman's emotions as her weakness

f- lack of technical knowledge of woman capabilities

g- lag of education system to help woman in knowing her worth

h- failure of government to address gender biasness

i- unjustified use of religious card

4. The need of the hour is to overcome the myth of frailty.

- a. ~~Inoculating~~ the stories of strong woman in ~~you~~ Teach girls ^{tactics} e.g. Hazrat Khadija (entrepreneur) Nurayba (warrior)
- b. ~~taught~~ woman the ^{to} protect herself from any physical abuse
- c. ~~Disdaining~~ the parameters of beauty
- d. ~~Praising~~ her role whatever she ~~chooses~~ for herself.
- e. moral and ethical education at all levels goes far beyond
- f. ^{Promotion of} ~~Scientific~~ knowledge regarding woman capabilities
- g. ~~Addressing~~ the ~~extremist~~ myths related to ~~woman~~

5- Conclusion

The choice of words/ jargons should be more appropriate and specific