Higher Education: Alls and Remedies Vumplituepheriaecheric war, Churchill received a massage for sentences uslow unde have an offer if churchill and not his shap o na estroy bomb German wiversities, we would Churchill immediately accepted his offer and said 4f England was destrayed and Cambridge and Oxford Universities were spared then English culture would alper similar tails highlights the importance of higher education for my nation-Unfortunately, Pallistan is fairing pletnora of issues related to higher education. The plight of educational institutions include poor and nodeficiency of curriculum, lack of infrastructore basic training for Teachers. Other than that and in the fee structure of a number of universities is beyond the means of mediocre middle class exerts prosure on both parents and firer wards. Apart from this, another problem unfolds about the shortage of universities in aveas which are awheck spallings for this in return, ine student on Dillemmanys of dilemma between choosing expensive study programmes and travelling cost. Thus, there is a dire need of the time for the Igaenment to revise educational policies. Reforms in educational sector are utmost necessary. This is the subsidies funds and icholarships awarded to the institution as well as sidents. Building of proper infrastructure based on classroms, pe grounds, vest areas, prayer halls, librarke indoor ufetarias and labortories will work as silver living for transforming the conditions of universities permatent tacius member, hiring lecturers as permanent faculty will also play an important role in increasing the standard of education. This essay will lay bare the flls and remptiles associated with higher education in Pakistan.

