Conclusion:

Throughout the history, many poets and philosophers have been criticizing the woman in one way or another. Some described her as only means of production and others said her the tool to fulfill the sexual desires of man.

This term "Frailty Thy name is woman" was written by the well known poet William Shakespeare. He wrote in his drama in which the son used this term for her mother upon her re-marrying.

ideas of frailty figures have installed the picture of woman as a weak and inferior creature in the society. By making this bad word is being marginalized in every nation of life.

However, these are only socially constructed images made by man itself. Because woman is doing every difficult task that man feel proud in doing. Additionally, she is giving birth to the next generation with love and pain bearing act.

The nations who give equal rights to their women are at the top and considering as the most happy.

and successful nations socially and economically. Islam always talks about the fundamental rights of woman. In Quran there is a whole Surah AL-NISA on the rights of woman. To make the whole belly, the woman must be given equal rights. Norms about the weakness of woman must be discouraged.

At the time, when man used to earn through agriculture, woman was found as entertainment skill and was sent to Heiracha (clubs of that time) for the prostitution. Harassment by the woman has been a very usual act. Men are using it to fulfill their sexual desires by ignoring her dignity. This has increased the rape cases in the world. The most recent case of rape has reported in India. A girl named Shushmita was gang raped by 15 men in (that country) hotel in college. She was raped and brutally killed. Her pelvic girdle frame broken and more than 13 human bites on her body were found. This showed that there is no humanity left in people anymore.

and woman is being used only for entertainment purposes.

Man is not only using her for considering her a working machine according to man's woman is made to remain at home and doing the household like dishes, washing, cleaning and sweeping, and considers that woman has no right to go outside and to take part in social works.

In Asia, the man considers it is against his self respect that his sister, wife, daughter go outside to live their social life. In some backward areas, women are not even allowed to get education. These views of men is actually curbing the fundamental rights of woman that leads to the destruction of the nations.

In the third women are facing domestic violence. woman has been marginalized in the houses and even other of the houses.

When woman go outside to earn or to complete their needs they are again being used for attraction purposes only. There are many less high ranked jobs or posts for the woman in the society. Pink collar jobs are being offered to woman like receptionist etc. The people involved in corruption always have a beautiful well-dressed woman in their offices to deal with. The government agent that could come for their accountability. In case of social media, woman are used in advertisements, promotion of brands. In the Airplanes and even buses woman are used to serve the passengers. These are the jobs through which marginalization of woman is happened but woman herself is also used to earn money.

Man not only does take

Some people are this much cheap that they are using the body of woman as their source of income. Smuggling of woman is the most extreme step of disrespecting the woman. The girls are being kidnaped and smuggled to other countries that is called human trafficking. These smuggled girls are been sold. People purchase and raise them forcefully. In some cases man fake the marriage to girls and then sold them out in

In different ~~parts of the world~~, ~~there are different types of these~~ ~~bad cultures.~~ In hinduism,
if husband of a woman die,
she would remain widow her whole life. She would have no right to live her life happily.
She would wear white dress her whole life. This is called Sati. In pathan culture, if some man has fixed in front of some girl's home, this is called ~~Chhat~~. ~~Now~~ this girl will not marry another man,
No one will desire to marry her. If someone did so, he would be murdered by the one who fixed in front of girl's home.
These are the evils of the societies that woman has no right to speak and considered as an inferior creature. She has been given the punishment of the Sati, she even did not commit.

It has become very normal to consider the woman as inferior to the man. If this has not been spoken by the mouth of people are showing their actions. Liked the birth of a baby is always celebrated along with parents. Seems happy. Parents are arranged in welcome of the boy. Everyone congratulates each other. Sweets are given to friends and relatives. Unfortunately in case of birth of a baby girl everyone seems unhappy. The family members started criticizing the mother for giving birth to a baby girl. No one considers the girl as a human being. The focus of the parents is not on the girl's education but on the girl's marriage. The girl is brought up from the parents.

Parents consider it useless to educate the girls. It is believed that woman is made to do households, so she only needs to train about the households, and she has no need to get education.

It is considered as the waste of money. Parents want to marry them as soon as possible.
On the other hand, people used to force their sons to study, even if he is careless and not capable.

A lot of money is used on his education. His every demand and desire is been fulfilled by the parents only because he is a son of and inferior to daughters.
At the end, boys fail to meet with their parents desires but this is not a issue. He has still right to to live his life according to his own rule.

~~But, many people still think~~ to even marry with their own selected person. Her parents will decide, whom to marry.
If some case were happened and a woman showed her desire to marry some specific person, it would be considered as disrespectful to parents. This goes against the dignity of parents and brothers to rewards. Sons have rights to man with the girl of his choice. This will make the parents feel proud. It is that still parents are not ready to accept his decision of the son, they have to accept it later in love of their boy.

Not in marriage decision but woman has been also criticized in her dressing style. She has no open dress to dress up according to her desires.
Husbands, brothers, fathers are using force to impose restrictions on their wives, sisters and daughters respectively.
Man has full right to wear whatever he wants. No one criticize him. He can do anything He can hangout with his friends at the late night.

No one will ask him. He has freedom of speech and freedom in every matter of his life.

Freedom of woman has been criticized voice of woman has been suppressed by the man. Whenever she tried to utter a loud voice of man is always there to suppress her voice. This is common in home by brothers, and even outside. The voice of woman is expressed in the classrooms, public places, social platforms, the news gets Justice. There are many cases of domestic violence like no one is ready to hear these issues of woman.

"Women are effective men, with equal and moral capacities inferior to men."

(Aristotle)

These are socially considered evils about woman made by only men. However, in real woman is the strongest character and have many capabilities. Woman has capacity to stand by men. She is totally capable of doing anything.

Woman is performing different tasks and playing different roles at a time. A woman is a mother, always caring her children. She works and she brought up her children to make them better human along with fulfilling the obligations towards her husband. She never runs away team her responsibility. Some woman are able to do jobs to complete with their needs of life. It was considered as the task of man to earn upon which he felt superior to woman. But now these is end to his thought because new days woman is earning more than a man.

Women have been

Men have been put in sports. This made them equal to man. Kathleen telety won 9 Gold medals in olympics and many championships. She is a well known swimmer of the America. Other sports like tennis, Hockey, Baseball, Soccer, Football and many more have female cricket teams.

The world's superpowers have hired the females in their forces like army and police.

In 2024, Canada has announced a female chief of army staff named Jennie Carignan. This happened for the first time in the history of world. In Pakistan many women have got the positions in administration.

Many females are getting the high positions in peace forces.

The most hardest task of all done by man was climbing the mount Everest mountain. This was also summited by woman. In 1993 Pakistani woman Jamina Baig climbed the mount Everest. Along with her many other women also have summited this peak.

Likewise, women participation in politics has been seen. In Pakistan Benazir Bhutto has remained a popular political figure. She got twice the position of prime minister. This conveys a positive message and describes the equality of man and woman.

"When everyone is equal, we are all free."

(Barack Obama)

If all women are given equal rights then world would be a better place to live. The reasons for success of many nations is based on their (16)

Gender equality habit. Scandinavian countries are famous in giving equal rights to every human.

The Best example is of Denmark.

The Gender equality index (GII) of the Denmark is 100% in a survey collected in 2021.

Singapore gives the best example by giving the rights to women and gaining heights of success.

When a country gives all fundamental rights to women, they get better economy and a better image of the country globally.

When women get equal representation in governance, it provides help to cope up with challenges.

India has 63% workforce in it's parliament. This shows the importance of women.

Our most righteous religion Islam gave the importance to the woman rights.

In Islam woman is considered equal to man.

Prophet Mohammed (S.A.W) advised about the equal rights of woman in his last sermon.

He said: "Be careful about your woman."

Well researched content good

Islam always talk about the equality of woman and man. There is no concept of superiority of man over woman in this religion.

Ummul Mommineen Hazrat Khadija (RA) was the most strongest woman. She stood firmly with our prophet (S.A.W) in his difficult times. She believed our prophet (S.A.W) when whole city was against him. This showed her strength. Thus reflected an owner of a large business. She helped her husband in every matter.

Hence, it has been proved that woman is not a sign of weakness, but a strong and firm character. The man who considers her inferior is himself a cheap and weak man. Islam always prove herself by showing patience as patience is the act of strength. Woman should not be considered as weak and must be given her equal rights because according to Hollywood actress:
