

Pakistan has banned

7 "Proscription regime"

For two decades Pakistan has been banned militant groups. But this banned group deactivates for short time and then re-enters the Naxal's list the Hafiz Gul Bahadur group and Baloch Separatist Group linked with TTP have been entered to the Naxal's list. Furthermore, the state has labelled TTP as "Fitna al-Ahwarij". The state is using historical and religious terms, but some deeper investigation are needed to outlaw these terrorist groups. In the past different groups were raised in the form of religious, separatist bands, and sectarian terrorist groups. The sectarian group name as "Lashkar-e-Jhangvi" was banned by Musharraf regime. In addition to this some other five group of militant was dissolved in January 2002. In his speech he had the keep strike Pakistan with American

Do not write grammatically confused statement

Eventhough after passing 22 years of that event the list of terrorist

Quest should be given & admin Syst

(5)

(PE)

An Pakistan on page 2 of grouped increases from ~~five~~ ^{five} to six groups to 81. the state has ~~fragile~~ ^{fragile} approach towards these group prohibition.

After the ~~dismissal~~ of their strength they ~~had~~ ^{had} change their agents names and practice terrorism freely.

To dis-prohibit the resurgence of terrorism, state representative, civil force ~~should~~ ^{should} work thoroughly.