

Essay: MOCK EXAM

Date:

"BIASED MEDIA IS REAL THREAT TO DEMOCRACY"

Brain storm

Misinformation

Is a threat to democratic integrity.

People choose who is shown as the best?

News are not based on truth.

Try to create fake narrative

Propaganda.

Biased Media is Real Threat to Democracy.

Misinformation through media

Highlight their favourite personalities

Favour given on the personal choices

Criticise people on personal choices

Influence the opinions of the public

Analysis given by journalists are not based on truth

Doesn't capture the real picture.

The topic has not been comprehensively addressed

Outline: INTRODUCTION

Hook: "Whoever controls the media controls the minds"

General statement:

Thesis statement:

Role of Media in building opinions:

- (i) Propaganda and publicity.
- (ii) Capture and show what they want
- (iii) People see what media wants them to see not the reality.

Role of Media in building false narratives

- (i) Highlighting the good deeds of their favourites
- (ii) Highlighting the bad deeds of people they dislike

Unnecessary details

Biased Media as a threat to democracy:

- (i) ~~All~~ media is based on favouritism not the truth.
- (ii) Influence public's opinion about the personalities.
- (iii) People choose the one as their leader whose shown as the best.
- (iv) ~~The real best personalities lag behind~~

This is the actual asked part, address it comprehensively

Ways to improve the situation:

- (i) News should be based on truth only.

- (ii) ~~No~~ Favouritism should not be promoted
- (iii) Real heroes should be highlighted
- (iv) Capture and show every side of ~~public~~ picture to the public.
- (v) Analysis of journalist should be based on truth.

Conclusion:

Essay

"Whoever controls the media, controls the mind," (Jim Morrison), this quote explains the crucial role of media in our life.

Media plays a vital role in influencing people's opinion. Today, ~~the~~ media of almost every country is biased, especially including Pakistani media. Pakistani media is biased and works on the basis of favouritism. The media persons highlight those who are their favourite personalities. The ~~public's~~ ^{of public} minds are influenced by the fake narratives portrayed by Pakistani media. Real heroes are neglected and fake heroes are portrayed as the heroes of the nation. ~~The~~ The media is totally based on fake information, or favouritism. Biased media becomes a threat to democracy because people choose the wrong persons as their leaders, ~~they~~ these are the people who are portrayed as best in media.