

Political Polarization; Governance and Society.

(1) Introduction

Thesis statement.

(2) Correlation among political polarization, governance and society.

(3) Causes behind the political polarization.

- (a) Historical leadership crisis are in Pakistan.
- (b) Long-standing military rule.
- (c) No political party complete its tenure.
- (d) Politicians serve self interest rather than national interests.

(4) Impacts of the political polarization on governance and society

- (a) Weak institutions.
- (b) Deep-rooted corruption in all departments.
- (c) Effects rule of law and order adversely.
- (d) Causes national disintegration.
- (e) Increases social evils like crimes, poverty and brain drain.

(5) Way forward; how to get rid of the political polarization

- (a) Politicians set national interest first priority of the state.
- (b) Ensure democracy and strong institutions.
- (c) Resolve political issues via table talk rather than harsh measures.

(6) Conclusion.