

Terrorism as a new threat to the contemporary world

Outline

I Introduction

Thesis Statement:

Despite the establishment of United Nation, with the aim of ensuring peace, thousands of people are living a miserable and a fearful ^{life} across the world due to terrorism. Multiple reasons are responsible for the upsurge of terrorism, including wrong inherited ideologies. However, there are methods that can curb terrorism.

II How terrorism is a new threat to the contemporary world:

A- Terrorism: A major player of political instability

1- Case study of Pakistan, Afghanistan, Syria.

B- Decreases economic growth

1. Return of Multinational ^{companies} groups (MNCs)

from terrorist effected countries.

C- Losses in terms of human resources

1- Pakistan has lost 48,000 people since 2001.

2- Between 2001-2021 Total 150,000, 200,000 casualties were reported in Afghanistan including US military fatalities.

D- Psychological impacts

A- Post-traumatic stress disorder are common.

2- Anxiety, sleep disturbance.

E- Loss of infrastructure

1- Case in point Afghanistan, Syria and Pakistan.

F- Undermines basic human rights

1- Individuals are deprived of education and basic facilities.

2- Governments focus is more on countering terrorism.

G- Displacement of masses

A1- 2 million people have been displaced in Pakistan

2- Total 38 million have been displaced across the world.

H- Damage to environment

1- Destruction of natural habitats

III Causes of terrorism: Irrelevant details

- A- Long inherited ideologies
- B- Marginalization of deprived groups
- C- Inefficiency of democratic and autocratic institutions
- D- Illiteracy of masses

IV Suggested measures for curbing of terrorism:

- A- Strong action against nominal ideologies.
- B- Providing basic facilities to every individual
- C- Strengthening anti-terrorist forces
- D- Provision of education.

Conclusion

Ahmed Nawaz was fourteen when he saw a nightmare that turned into reality. It was 16 December 2014 when he ^{saw} hundreds of his friends dying in front of his eyes. The fragrance of ink changed into the pungent odour of blood and the joyous chorales turned into horrific cries. This is how terrorism is affecting Pakistan and other countries across the globe. Due to upsurge of terrorism majority of the people are living ^a horrific life. Terrorism is also playing a significant role in political instability. Thousands of people have become victims of terrorism across the world. The impacts of terrorism on psychology of humans are also alarming. People are deprived of their basic rights including education and health facilities due to terrorism. It is also responsible for environmental degradation. Multiple causes are responsible for the rise of terrorism including wrong inherited ideologies and marginalization of deprived groups. Terrorism is also increasing due to inefficiency of democratic and autocratic institutions. Moreover, illiteracy of masses is also contributing to in the upsurge of terrorism. However, all the hope is not lost. There are methods that can eliminate terrorism such as, taking action against odious ideologies and providing equal opportunities to every individual. Despite the establishment of the United Nation (UN), with the aim of ensuring peace, thousands of people are living a miserable and

Day: _____

Date: _____

Fearful life across the world due to terrorism. Multiple reasons are ~~resp~~ responsible for the upsurge of terrorism including inherited ideologies. However, there are methods that can curb terrorism.

Repetition

To begin with, terrorism is a major player behind political instability across the globe. It has spreaded its roots every where due to which it has become difficult for political parties to thrive.

Terrorism weakens the federation as the prolonged and severe fight against terrorism has taken its toll. Moreover, the pressure exerted by militants on local governments disrupts the social fabric and leads to the destruction of local structures. Owing to political instability that triggered by terrorism, no any

Date: _____

Day: _____

~~Prime Minister~~

Date: _____

~~Five year tenure in Pakistan. Same is the case with other countries which have grappled with terrorism.~~

~~Briefly, terrorism is responsible for the political instability across the world.~~

Bring further maturity in your arguments