

2016 Exercise 7: Rewrite the following dialogue, written in indirect speech, in a paragraph form.

→ P. C

Saim: Hello, Asif! Swatting away as usual. Come out, man; shut up your old books, and come and have a game of tennis.

Asif: I am sorry I cannot do that, Saim. The examination is drawing near, and I want every hour I can get for study.

Saim: Oh! Hang all examinations! I do not worry about mine. What is the use of them, any way?

Asif: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.

Saim: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a government office; but that's all, and there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degrees, and are no nearer getting jobs of any sort.

Asif: That may be so; but I am not studying so much to pass my examination and obtain my degree, as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties.
