

Why I want to become a CSP officer?

Because it is the best government job in Pakistan, in contrast to other government jobs in the country. Secondly, this job provides a better opportunity to serve our nation in a better way, while private jobs do not offer such opportunities to serve the nation. Thirdly, this job promotes job security, as your boss can not fire you based on mood swings. In contrast, private jobs lack this security, they will fire you within hours. Fourthly, it is the most prestigious job in Pakistan compared to other government jobs in Pakistan. It also offers immense respect and protocols that other government jobs in Pakistan do not provide. Lastly, all these reasons contribute to making this job a brilliant job in Pakistan.

Choice of jargons should be more mature.

Sentences

(2) The Cant College Quetta Washroom are extremely unhygienic and you cannot stand comfortably because there is not proper system in place for sanitation.

(8) The Cafeterias of government school of Quetta is unhygienic. They use low quality product for food purposes. As a result several health risk has been identify in children.
 have identified

(3) My university fee is 40,000 per semester.

(4) This disparity in wage, lack of job security, and instability to gain valuable teaching experience are serious issues.

(5) Over burden of faculty and irresponsible attitude of permanent faculty make the situation worst.

Avoid minor language mistakes.
Keep practicing