Title: A Connection With Supernatural Beings.

A desire to establish a connection with the God was aroused when Man encountered his fears. Man believed that the universe was under the command of a supernatural being. In ancient Greece, people followed the instructions of soothsayers, who possessed a special ability to interpret God's messages, ~~such as lightning, thunder, and direction of fire.~~ ^{from different natural phenomena} Also, there were certain occasions when Gods communicated directly with a human being, who was under a state of divine mania. The ancient Greece oracles were based on a custom of predicting upcoming events. Each oracle had a connection with one specific God. Apollo was a prominent god, who used to deliver the resolution of Zeus to people.
