

Date: 3 December, 2024

Choice of jargons should be mature

Improve language (grammar)

Huma Akbar

Implications of unemployment in Pakistan

(Paragraph practice)

Unemployment is a serious threat ~~prevailing~~ ~~across~~ the world. Developed countries are dealing with it successfully while the developing countries are still struggling.

Unfortunately, Pakistan is one of them.

Moreover, if this issue remains unsolved, it would have aggravated implications in near future. For instance, this social evil would ~~to~~ further burdenize the country's already strained economy as well as ~~and~~ ~~will~~ also ~~stressed~~ ~~country's~~ already ~~scarced~~ resources. Furthermore, if this issue remains unsolved, it would become reason for escalating crimes in the country as unemployed individuals would ~~constrained~~ to involve in illegal activities.

Besides this, this evil would also take hype with rising of other social evils like inflation and lack of opportunities and this will further worsen the country's law

Date: _____

Huma Akbar

Avoid using first nouns

Date: _____

and order situation. However, there are some practical steps if we implement these in country we can get rid of this social evil to a greater extent including government has to focus more on education, ~~promoting~~ skill development and providing more job opportunities. Simply put, it is never too late to pledge for a new change to create a new tomorrow. Where there is a will there is always a way, regardless of obstacles and hindrances we can definitely achieve our goal.

Total words: 206

Topic sentence + Support = 30

Transition = 14

Implication 1 = 26

Implication 2 = 26 } 83 words

Implication 3 = 31

Solutions = 40

Critical + for Conclusion = 39

Analysis