Attitude of teachers with children.

Modern educationalist theorists focus on friendly interactions with the children. They are not supposed to be controlled like animals. Besides, creating a friendly atmosphere for the children will help them accept suggestions and prohibitions. Children feel more comfortable with the teachers who love and understand them, without causing psychological damage. However, it is also challenging for the teachers to love and care every <sup>child</sup> in just couple of hours. Additionally, youngsters also become frustrated with several laws of <sup>discipline</sup>. Hence, children, with care and love can be tackled since they are often <sup>naughty</sup> or naughty. They need a good amount of love and focus so that they can feel confident and flexible.
