

I am inspired to become a CSP officer because it is the best job. It offers me a numerous benefits like job security, incentives, rapid promotions and it bestows me elite Civil Services. As a CSP officer I will earn the respect, recognition and status. It gives me the authority for betterment of community and decision making. Furthermore it provides the opportunity to abroad learning and working on the expenditure of government. As a CSP officer, I will have to the opportunity to contribute to Pakistan's development. Therefore as a CSP I have job security, incentives, and decision-making authority.

Repetition of idea

Punctuate your sentences properly