Title: ~~"Arts and Media: Putting Palestine in Perspective."~~

The author discussed the contributions of a Palestinian man in keeping their values and ideals alive through arts and media. Nizar Hassan's first work dug deep into what Palestinians thought of stupid Israeli notion of independence. They occupied other's homeland and declared it independence. The author got an email from Nizar Hassan about his newest documentary My Grandfather's Path. The film was about how inhumane behaviour of Zionist settlers was causing Palestinians to become bitter too. Palestinian values and ideals are left into that trap. It is Palestinian arts and media that have saved the filmmaker from this trap. This new documentary
