

Populism is a Threat to democracy.

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis statement:-

Do not go so against the basic theme so straight. It has become a threat.

Populism is the party, very beneficial to a democracy. On the other hand, it has a drastic effects or impacts on democracy. It is becoming a threat to a democracy. In this conditional, democratic government faces many hurdles.

2. Populism and Democracy

3. Populism is a Threat to a democracy.

- a- Representation of unrepresented people.
- b- Emotional appeal over policies
- c- Marginalization of minorities
- d- Authoritarian drift
- e- Withdrawal from international norms.
- f- Concentration of media control.

4. Populism is not a threat to democracy.

- a- Emphasises the participation of common people
- b- Emotional connection is well researched policies that ultimately drive the change and address the societal issues
- c- Marginalization of minorities perform in a gate keeping function
- d- Avoid Accountability to elite by authoritarian
- e- Beliefs in national identity and conservative views.
- f- Anti-elite sentiments over media

5. Democracy is still Threaten by Populism:

- a- Populistic's movement start who exploit public sentiments
- b- Short term policies are made by the populism who destabilizes the democratic government.
- c- Public opinion is manipulated and debate is not happened openly due to gate-keeping function.

M T W T F S

- d. Accountability and Transparency are impossible due to lack of expertise.
- e. Conservative views is not brought a radical change for a progressive country.
- f. No free press

6- Conclusion:

Essay:

The myth of social Media and Populism

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement: Social media acts like

Social Media is ~~like a tool~~

~~like a tool to run the population in beneficial way. it is just a myth because ~~social media~~ contain many complexities in shaping the population. However,~~

There are ~~various~~ Write with proper subject plz ~~which are used~~ to counter the bad performance of social media.

1. Relationship between social media and Populism

3. ~~Alpha surrounding social media and Populism~~

2. Social Media acts as a tool for Populism
 It acts as

- a. Facilitation of communication between Populist leader and their supporters ^{Social Media}
- b. Platforms can amplify populist messages
- c. Community of like-minded individuals
- d. Issues covered by social media
- e. Highlighting the grievances

4. Populism get benefit from social media, it is just a myth.

- a. Communication create echo chamber that limit the diverse views.
- b. Social media platforms often facilitate the rapid dissemination of misleading or false information.
- c. Create tension between elite and Populism
- d. Lack the depth of analysis and misinterpret the facts in conveying the crisis

e. In the quest for engagement, grievances are often sensationalized in clickbait headlines. The ~~nature of issues~~

~~nature of issues~~

5. Which measurements can be used for enhancing the performance of social media in ~~staying the pulse of measurements~~ which reduce the so-called myth of ~~social media~~. How can we counter the myths surrounding social media.

a. Encouraging the constructive dialogue

b. Supporting individual responsibility

c. Promoting civic education

d. Fostering media literacy.

e. Supporting fact-checking organization

e

U r quite relevant try to be more clear in mind plz

6. Conclusion: