

The Consequences of violent Protests

Mature your sentence structure and improve your grammar

A- Introduction

B- Consequences of violent Protests

- 1- These violent protests take the lives of civilians.
- 2- In the result of violent protests, state faces a damage to infrastructure.
- 3- There is always an instability in machinery of state due to violent protests.
- 4- Violent protests always do an economic loss to the state.
- 5- In the result of violent protests, states lose its self image at regional and global level.
- 6- The outcome of violent protests is not only loss of ~~economy~~ but also loss of man from forces. Unclear argument
- 7- The violent protests always left the psychological impacts leave on participants.

8. These violent protests are threat to democracy.
 9. These violent protests are the contributors in environmental pollution and damage to the environment.
 10. One main result of violent protests is the violation of human rights.
 11. The violent protests are threat to the national security.
 12. These violent protests give margin to insurgents and enemies of state to invade.
 13. These violent protests create disturbance in normal regulation of lives of citizens.
 14. Conclusion
- Suggest remedial measures as well

In 20th century, people thought 21st century will be ~~modernized~~, modern, well-settled and peaceful, due to development. However, the 21st century is contradictory to expectations.

Every second day, a new of violent protest appears on our digital devices.

Violent protests are chaotic, intense and uncontrollable in nature.

The violent protests cause unbearable damage to state at every level ~~from individual~~

~~to international level~~. The results of violent protests are the loss of thousands of lives, infrastructural damage and instability in proper working of state machinery.

In the outcome of violent protests, state faces economic loss and loss of soft image. ~~potray~~.

These are not confined to the physical loss but impact the psychological health of the citizens.

Along with that, these protests are threat to democracy which is best form of government. Furthermore, these violent protests result in ~~contribution~~ of pollution in environment, violation of human rights, threat to national security and disturbance in daily routine of citizens. All the above factors tell, violent protests cause the unbearable damages to state.

The protests which were on their ways to fulfill their demands, take the lives of many people. People have lost their lives due to severity of a protest, firing, shelling and chaotic movement in the protests. As per the report of Reuters, in the protest against the government of Bangladesh for bringing change in quota, 1500 people died. Hence, this depicts that violent protests lead to loss of many innocent people who just participated for the needs to be fulfilled.