

"Globalization and National Economies"

Thesis Statement:-

Globalization increases the national economic growth by fostering international integration and enhancing economic opportunities. But it also contributes to economic inequality. Enhancing free-trade agreements, good governance and national exports are needed for safe globalized future.

1) Introduction

2) Globalization increases the national economic development

2.1) Globalization is shaping the global economy

2.2) Digital globalization will accelerate the eco cross-border economic development

a) E-commerce and digital trade

b) Remote work and Global Talent Pools

3) Globalization contributes to national economy

- a) facilitates international trade
- b) Promotes economic growth
- c) Encourages foreign investment
- d) drives technological advancements

3.1) Globalization is playing a vital role in shaping global economy

- a) facilitating economic integration
- b) advancing digital and green economies
- c) addressing inequality and sustainability

3.2) The other side:- Globalization increases economic inequality

4) Economic growth of South Korea due to globalization ; best example to follow

4.1) Pakistan can also follow this strategy to enhance economic development

4-2) Way forward to enhance national economy by globalization

- a) promoting free-trade agreements
- b) developing export-oriented industries
- c) leveraging technology and digital globalization
- d) improving governance and stability

5) Conclusion

The topic has not been adequately addressed

Structure your outline by deconstructing the topic properly using proper pattern

Add more arguments and address the knowledge gap