

When Pakistani citizens apply for visa to Schengen countries, they often get rejected. To get visa is like presenting your dreams to the world and receive response with minor issues.

Same as teacher had removed student exam without even reading it and announced as fail.

In contrast, when citizens from the western countries apply for Pakistani visa, they are warmly welcomed and on their way back tell issues in country.

This is due to <sup>perception</sup> (Pakistani) the perception of western countries as they think Pakistan

Do not break the paragraph.

Date: _____

will bring problems in <sup>E</sup>urope, and most of time spent in submitting documents of issued visa. <sup>T</sup>he process is so tiring that they will regret it. Schengen countries should deal Pakistani as human being too. They will <sup>create</sup> deal this as issue, when someday they stand in line for visa.

Title: 'The visa issues for Pakistani citizens'

Grammar needs improvement.