

Essay Distant learning in Pakistan and Challenges.

Introduction

Thesis statement

Distant ~~Education~~ learning is the new method of learning. In Pakistan ~~there are~~ many opportunities such as internet availability, different platform provide online learning, but there is ~~are~~ some hurdle: disruption of internet and not available in far areas. ~~It can be improved by effective measure.~~

Thesis statement should not contain details, it should be brief yet meaningful a - Internet availability

• 4G network

b - Platform provide online education,

• for example Noa and tips

c - Institute can train his employee by online education.

d - Informative social website

Distant learning Challenges in Pakistan :-

Focus on sentence structure a - Disruption in internet sector

• Firewall install

b - unavailability of Internet in far areas

How these challenges can be overcome a - Incentivise internet sector for investment

b - Awareness in people for online education

Address the knowledge gap

Improve foundation (sentence structure and grammar)

Focus on maturity of arguments

In past, there was one method of education which is traditional education. Now, there are two methods of education learning: online and traditional learning. Online education is spreading in all over world and Pakistan is getting benefits of online education. In Pakistan has many opportunities: Internet availability is the backbone of online education and different institute provide online education - but there

⑤ are Some challenges in the way of online education: disruption of internet signals and unavailability of internet in rural areas in Pakistan.

These challenges can be addressed if certain actions are taken by state holders, then these challenges can be converted into ~~growing~~ promoting online education. ~~hence~~ ~~conclude~~ ~~debate~~ Hence

Complete the sentence