

Pragmatism Vs Passion in Politics

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement: (Successive events around the globe ~~give~~^{Provide} enough evidence to deduce that passion in politics, at national or international level, has very less often bore good results. Therefore, although complex, pragmatism in politics is the only effective alternative to keep the engine of state running.)

2. Defining and Understanding the terms: Pragmatism and Passion in the context of Politics

A. Pragmatism in Politics

(Case Study of Chinese Communist Party)

Clear in thought

B. Passion in Politics

(Populist Nationalism championed by President elect - Donald Trump)

3. Real-life examples around the Globe highlighting the success of Pragmatism and failure of Passion in national and Geo-Politics

A. The fall of Aleppo ended 50-year rule of Bashar Al-Assad family

B. A Passionate attempt at Martial law in South Korea

C. Rise of Passionate Politics in America and the demise of Multilateralism (Donald Trump's love for bilateralism and Populist Nationalism)

D. Chinese Political landscape: A successful model of pragmatism in Politics (Integration of commerce, government and military for a comprehensive national security)

E. The Demise of Political Parties in Pakistan (Populist narrative championed by passionate political leaders)

F. Modi's rule in India: A mixture of passion and pragmatism (Sub-optimal success at national and international level)

G. Argentina's revival from Economic Turmoil (Politics of Pragmatism by President Milei)

4. Recommendations for the Political revival of countries stuck in Political turmoil due to passionate politics of some entities

A. Pragmatic Civil-Military Relationship (Integration of economy, government and military)

B. Inclusive Development and Governance
(As championed by Nobel laureate Amartya Sen and Dr. Mehboob ul Haq)

5. Conclusion

Phrase formation is fine