first of all sorry for delayed evaluation was facing some internet and family issues

The pathway to Pakistan's prosperity lies in the religious tolerance. Pakistan is the sixth most populated country, with an enormous youth bulge, having people from different <sup>sect's</sup> religions of same religion. These religious fanatics groups interfere in government dealings and now have become pressure groups in Pakistan political system. It is right to say that Pakistan is now in a medieval era where religious fanatics and zealot influencing the political system. Such type of extremism is a threat to prosperity as it is not only a threat to minorities right but to state harmony, new-ideas and collaboration among states too. Therefore, prosperity of Pakistan lies in the religious tolerance.
