

Prescis: 2017

~~Title~~: Laziness: a Blessing
in disguise.

All the evils in the world are done by the people who are always busy. The devil is the busiest creature in the world and in his kingdom laziness is considered a curse. The world is in chaos but laziness is not the reason of it. In past, when the world was in a lazy state it would be better if the people suming the world should had taken rest and did nothing.

~~But the meaning of life changed back then and now people must do something and to always work.~~ It would be so amazing

if people for once started enjoying their lives and had spent an evening on a hill under the sun.

~~This would not impact their lives.~~ Even in today's world if famous people and rulers forget the notion that laziness is crime ~~and spend a day doing nothing, so we certainly~~ it certainly would benefit us. As the world would be better if some people just do nothing.

Total world = 504

~~given~~ 1/3rd of it is 164.

words written by me = 160.

sentence is too long and sentence structure is not fine

out of context

main idea is picked and discussed but you are unable to explain your stance and expression need improvement 6/20 attend to pointed out mistakes