

Do not waste water even if you were at running stream

Introduction

Importance of water on the planet is evident in many cases.

- a) significant for sustaining life on Earth
 - b) water maintains the temperature of Earth.
 - c) vital for the organisms living in water bodies - a source of food for coastal areas.
 - d) one who controls water, controls the world - A context of straits.
 - e) major trade routes are in the form of water.
 - f) water controls every aspect of human life.
 - g) useful to generate energy
- Despite having great significance, an important natural resource is being wasted leading to drastic effects.

- a) Impacts the social life of humans
- b) water scarcity causes intra-state conflicts - case study of Pakistan.
- c) inter-state conflicts are mostly caused by due to control of water - case study of India and Pakistan.

d) water scarcity leads to food scarcity causing disasters.

e) Economy gets burdenized as hospitals are flooded with diseases caused due to droughts.

f) Global rise in temperature is seen due to water depletion.

4) Several ways are there to avoid loss of water.

a) Individual must be aware of to avoid the loss at grass-root level.

b) Local governments can significantly control the wastage of water.

c) States must address the grievances of marginalized communities being majorly affected.

d) States need to adopt the guidelines provided by global institutions.

e) Society as an institution needs to avoid the disposal of garbage in water bodies.

4) water conservation plants to be built.

5) conclusion.