

Education System of Pakistan Its and Remedies

Although our education system is replete with many problems, such as child labour, different education in public and private school and others, these problems can be addressed through effective measures.

Gender Equality: A myth or reality

Although it would not be wrong to say that gender equality is in the process of becoming reality, it is a myth at this time and seems impossible.

Democracy in Pakistan: Hopes and Hurdles

Although Democrat system of Pakistan can be panacea for all problem, the country has never achieved such democracy and will not be allowed.

Global Warming: A myth or Reality

Global Warming has appeared as a reality. Due to the consumption of non-renewable energy resources, ^{heat} has unequivocally increased on global level. As a result of it, the occurrence of natural disasters is momentarily seen.

Rising Islamophobia

Although Islamophobia has emerged as a major problem to the Muslim world, it can be dealt through joint efforts of Muslims in different ways.

Tourism Potential in Pak Opportunities and Challenges

Although Pakistan is blessed with many natural, historical and saint places, which can be used for tourism for economic prosperity, they are turned deaf ears with no investment on their infrastructure and security.