

Population Situation of Pakistan and Its Impact on Development.

1) INTRODUCTION

Thesis Statement: Over the period of time, population situation of Pakistan has been worsening due to several factors: high fertility rate, lack of access to family planning services, cultural and religious beliefs, poverty and lack of education, urbanization and lack of government action. These factors pose severe impacts on resources, environment, infrastructure, health sector and social, political and cultural arenas.

2) Causes behind worst situation

- a. High fertility rate
- b. Lack of access to family planning services
- c. Cultural and religious beliefs
- d. poverty and lack of education
- e. Urbanization
- f. Political instability and lack of government

3) Horrible Impacts on Development

- a. Strain on resources
- b. Environmental degradation
- c. Overburdened infrastructure.
- d. Economic challenges.
- e. Social challenges
- f. Health problems
- g. Political instability.

4) Conclusion