

Topic: Gender Equality: A Popular Slogan.

1. Introduction

(Thesis statement) Despite being a popular slogan, the concept of gender equality is utopic.

2. Why is it important to achieve gender equality?

3. The strive to achieve gender equality is decades old:

a. Gender Equality became talk of the town through feminist movements.

b. Basic rights such as right to life demanded.

c. ~~Right~~ Right to vote and property.

d. Right to education demanded.

e. Right to marriage and divorce.

f. Men's equality also discussed.

g. Right to employment asked for.

4. Even though popular, gender equality still seems far-fetched:

a. Women are treated as an inferior gender.

b. Denied of basic fundamental rights.

c. Less chances of education and employment.

d. Shocking increase in gender parity.

e. Women face discrimination in all walks of life.

f. Use of degrading words for women.
g. Increased incidences of gender based violence.

h. Even though negligible amount, men also face discrimination.

5. way forward to achieve gender equality:

- a. Importance of women need to realized.
- b. Education imparted at grass root level.
- c. Feudal and patriarchic concepts need to be challenged.
- d. Public- Private partnership to achieve gender equality.

6. conclusion.