Nazir Hassan was a cinematographer. He produced a film "Independence" that revolved around stolen homeland of other peoples - Palestinians. The author received a link of Nazir Ahmed new documentary - My Grandfather's Path - in the midst of ongoing Israel's annexation. In which he argued that being incensed with Israel's atrocities will turn us all into them. So, one must not fall into this trap. Nazir Hassan's new documentary has highlighted Palestine's perspective while dejecting Israel's encroachments beautifully. Although, short version have been aired by Al-Jazeera, but the documentary needs to be seen in its entirety.
