

International Organizations have Failed to Protect Humanity

1. Introduction

a. Evolution of sovereign state

b. Meanings of International Organizations

2. Responsibilities of International Organizations

a. Maintaining peace and stability

b. Reducing illiteracy, poverty and hunger

c. Ensuring an environment friendly and sustainable economic development

d. Safeguarding fundamental human rights

e. Keeping a check on drug trafficking, smuggling, and human trafficking

3. Evidence of their Failure

a. Genocides, ethnic cleansings, and war crimes

b. Forced detentions for indefinite time period

c. Disputed areas under continuous oppressions

d. Honor killings and child marriages in the name of traditions

e. Extreme poverty and destitutions

f. Gender inequality

g. A large number of refugees and migrations

h. Cold war scenario in Ukraine, the South China sea and Asia Pacific Region

i. Extremism, terrorism, militancy ii. Nuclear Proliferation and weapons of mass destruction

4. Suggestions and Recommendations

- a. Structural reforms
- b. Financial independence
- c. Unbiased and unprejudiced attitude.

5. Conclusion