

Topic: Role of Women in Politics

→ Outline:

1. Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Women play a significant role in politics alongside men. As women contribute to human capital, their role in politics improves a country's economy as well as socially. Despite various challenges, multiple steps can be taken to provide safeguards for women in politics.

2. Duties and Status of Women in politics

3. How women play their role in politics

a) Political role of women in historical perspective.

b) Participation of women in politics increases the human capital

c) Women empowerment by women in politics.

d) Increasing role of women in politics contributes to a country's economy.

e) Role of women in transition from traditional politics to innovation.

f) Political role of women in integrating the society

factors that hinder the role of women in politics.

- a) Lack of educational opportunities for women
- b) Gender related social stigmas that hinders women's entry in politics
- c) Economic dependency of women upon their counterparts-men
- d) Resistance in trusting women with technical job-politics.
- e) Opposition from their male counterparts.

Recommendations for enhancing women's role in politics

- a) Providing safe educational infrastructures for women on ground level
- b) Enhancing women's role in politics by breaking social barriers
- c) Initiation of campaigns like, #HeForShe, to alleviate hostility among man and women
- d) Provision of social security for increasing women's role in politics.

6. Conclusion