

Date: _____

Human rights are the first causality in any conflict

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement: The human rights are the first causality in war. The conflict violates human rights as it impacts on human security and basic survival. However, strategies need to be developed to minimize the impact of human rights in any conflict.

2. Correlating human rights with war

3. Reasons how human rights are violated in conflict

- a. Conflict leads to greater displacement of people
- b. Conflict damages infrastructure like schools, hospitals which
- c. Human rights are violated in the conflict as it leads to forcible immigration of people from their home town.
- d. The suppresses the ~~right~~ freedom of speech of the individuals
- e. Conflict brings psychological impact on individuals mental health
- f. The use of weapons during conflict threatens the security of the civilians.

4. Why human rights are violated in the world

- a. The anarchic structure of the world, encourages individuals to achieve their national objective
- b. Weak policies of the world organization in maintaining peace
- c. The differences in ideologies encourage states for conflict
- d. To maintain their hegemony in the world, states go for war
- e. An increase in the arm and race weapons trigger conflict
- f. Growing separatist movement in the world triggers

5. How <sup>conflict violation of</sup> human rights can be minimized during any conflict

- a. Invest in conflict prevention strategies
- b. Encourage global collaboration to address conflict
- c. Deployment of neutral peace maintaining forces in conflict zone to prevent human right violation.
- d. Providing education to emphasize on protecting civilians during armed conflict

6. Conclusion