

→ Provide your feedback already. Also state that whether I'm on right track or not.

Precis Writing Practice by Precising the Sentences.

→ The technologies advancements in artificial intelligence have revolutionized various industries, enhancing efficiency and transforming the way business operates.

Advancements in artificial intelligence are revolutionizing industries and reshaping the business for enhanced efficiency.

→ Climate change poses a serious threat to global ecosystems, impacting biodiversity and causing adverse impacts effects on weather patterns.

Climate change is a threat to biodiversity and is causing adverse effects on weather pattern.

→ In the realm of health care, innovative technologies such as telemedicine are playing a pivotal role in providing remote medical consultations and improving patient access to health care services.

Telemedicine is playing important role in improving health care services by providing remote medical consultations.

→ Education is undergoing a transformative shift with integration of digital platforms, fostering interactive and accessible learning experiences for students worldwide.

Digital platforms and interaction among students worldwide is improving education system.

→ The conservation of natural resources is imperative for sustainable development, as it ensures the preservation of ecosystems and promotes long term environmental balance.

The conservation of natural resources is essential for sustainable development, preserving ecosystem and maintaining environmental balance.