That familiarity produces neglect, has been long observed. The effect of all external objects, however great or splendid, ceases with their novelty; the courtier stands without emotion in the royal presence, the music tramples under his foot; the beauties of the Spring with little attention to their fragrance, and the inhabitant of the coast darts his eye upon the immense diffusion of waters without awe, wonder, or terror.

Letters between relatives and friends are called personal letters. The most important in such letters is the content. Don't begin with a hackneyed phrase like, "I was delighted to get your letter," "received your letter," or "I have often thought of writing to you." Use a vigorous, clear chatty style.

He was frightened and so turned away into the forest again. "Hey! Look at that cowardly lion," the donkey brayed to the rooster, "I am going to chase him" and the donkey ran after the lion. "Wait!", the rooster shouted, "you don't know that", but it was too late. The lion had turned and killed the donkey. "Ah! My poor, stupid friend", the rooster said as he watched the lion eating the donkey, ~~(2018)~~ "the lion wasn't afraid of you but of my crowing."
