Title

Nizar Hassan: a Palestinian patriotic Documentary Maker

Precis

Nizar Hassan, a Palestinian documentary filmmaker produced film "Independence" in which he mocked the Israeli absurd notion of Independence on other's land. He wrote an email to the writer when Israeli planning of more annexation spread. He told him about his new film My Grand Father's Path. This film conveyed the message to take precautions against the Zionist settlers. If they behaved like enemy then they became like them and will forget their ideologies. Palestinian Cinema had performed this task for years to protect them from the trap. His new documentary had pushed Palestinian into perspective. This work was mourning on his homeland. It's shorter version had been broadcast on Al Jazeera. People owned it as a holy work.
