

Pakistani Women have the same chances as men.

Date: _____

Day: _____

Outline.

(1) Introduction :

Thesis statement.

(2) An overview of women status in Pakistan as compare to men.

(3) Pakistani women does not have the same chances as men (Thesis)

(a) Discrimination prevails in education provision.

(b) Women are considered for reproductive role only.

(c) They are deprived of health facilities.

(d) Women participate least in the economy and politics.

(e) Women does not have freedom of movement and right of choice making.

(4) Men are more privileged in Pakistan than women (Antithesis)

(a) Men are prioritized for qualitative education.

(b) They are chosen for productive roles.

(c) Men are considered fit for all high rank jobs.

(d) Their participation in the economy and politics is higher than women.

(e) Men are independent in choice and movement.

(5) Inspite of die-hard efforts, women are struggling in Pakistan (Synthesis)

(a) Women confront hatred for feminist movements.

Date: _____

Day: _____

(b) Given legal rights have only written status rather than implementation.

(c) Women tolerate abuse and harassment in political domain.

(d) Provincial policies making them more dependent instead of empowerment.

(e) Gender disparity is also extreme in Pakistan.

(6) Conclusion.