

Name

Tayyaba Yousaf

Course

Css

Batch

61

Lms id

3334

Precis

Titel:

Man as a social animal

Man's existence is closely linked with other human beings. They use food, clothes and houses that are made by others. His knowledge is dependent on language created by others. Social influences give humanity the ability to live in society. If man were left alone he would feel and live like animals. Although every human is significant, it is more part of society which gives him material and spiritual existence.