

Title :

Purposeful Education or Education and Moral development

These are three schools of thoughts regarding on the matter of education; but, the author disregards third one the most, as it supports Rousseauism or Individualism.

The followers of this school hold a view that purpose of education is to provide an environment of liberty and independent will in order to ensure spontaneous growth. According to author, his view is totally wrong as the principles of morality, self restraint and intellectuality cannot be acquired independently. Moreover, education is not only a source of growth, but also a tool for moral, mental and social development, which cannot

Translation

The old man told that there is a mountain across the forest, where there is a flower which can heal one's blindness. But that mountain is too high with difficult terrain which can create hinderances along the way. Many people tried their luck but no one could succeed. Maybe, that's the reason why world is a bed of
