The progress of a world would be better if women ruled the world. Women is the main cornerstone of the world. According to Napoleon, if we give an educated woman; a civilized and educated nation will be produced. If the up-bringing of a woman should be better; woman ruled the world in a best possible way. Through an educated woman; world can ^{run} go in a best possible manner. A lot of good changes are taken place by an empowered woman. Woman participation in the economy can increase the GDP of a state. A lot of social evils such as harassment ~~removes~~ from the society; then she ruled the world in a best possible manner. Woman health is affected by any natural disaster. A world would be better; if she works on his health. An empowerment is very important to serves in various sectors. An empowered woman can do marvellous action through his dedication and motivation. Awareness serves as an instrument for the betterment. If woman fully aware about their rights; she ruled the world in a best possible manner.

Women participation in economics is the instrument to increase the GDP of a state.

A progress of a state can judge on the basis of a GDP. All the men and women are equally participate in the GDP of a state. The problems of an economics is not related to gender specific. According to a WORLD Bank, an achieving gender equality in Pakistan, a 30% increase in the GDP of a Pakistan. Hence, women participation is an important element for the GDP of a state.

Other than GDP, if women harassment is eradicated from the society, she rule the world in a good manner. Harassment is the major problem in the society. A working woman faces harassment in her life alot. Due to various reasons, they go out from their homes. Harassment is not limited to physical abuse. Harassment are of various types such as cyber bullying. According to Alliances against harassment, 94% working woman face harassment in both public and private sectors. A working capacity of a woman is decreasing due to harassment.

In a nutshell, if harassment can remove the society. A woman rule the world better than man.

There ^{are} also many problems other than societal. Health is very important for the survival. If basic prerequisites of health are not providing to anyone. He cannot survive in the world. Woman health is the major obstacle to rule the world. If her health are not well; how she rule the world. Women are not diagnosing with various diseases at early stage. When any diseases completely destroy her health then she know about their health condition. According to a ^{Report of X²} Women's report of Closing Women's Health Gap; a $ Trillion project to improves the Lives and Economics by World Economic Forum; Woman diagnosis a diseases after very long time. For example, in case of cancer, she diagnosis after a four and half a year. In a nutshell, when investment in woman health shall be increase; she rule the World in an outstanding manner.

Empowers the woman to perform better in various sectors. Woman empowerment is an important element for a state progress. An empowered woman can excel in every sectors. From a basic households to the economy of a state, a woman play an important role in the state. A set of skills are provided for the market linkages. For example, Punjab Gender Parity Report 2023, a Project of demand driving training by Pakistan skill development Fund empowers the 1,029 rural women. These are some initiatives are being taken to empowers the woman.

Awareness about their right is paving a way to rule the world in a better way. Awareness is very important to empowers the women. There are a lot of women who do not know about their right. An injection of oppression is injected into the vein of woman; when they do not know about their right. An oppressive cases are being taken place in case of mass marriages.

For example, according to Married Women's Property Act of 1874, the spouses grant equal administrative authority over assets during marriage. But women do not know about this act. In a nutshell, an awareness is an instrument to rule the world in a better way.

Women is not good in the subject of STEM. The problems that is related to economy are very difficult for the woman. They do not actively participate in statistics, economics and mathematics. These subjects are not good for woman. For example, in the school, boys are actively participating in mathematics, physics and economics. They are not good in history and sociology. But girls do very perform very well in the subjects of history and sociology. So, woman is not perform well in the stem subjects.

On the other hand, harassment is not gender specific. Both men and women are equally harassed. Harassment is a social evil that exist in our society. This evil is not limited to only women. Man and woman is facing this evil. According to Pakistan's Federal Ombudsman Secretariat For Protection Against Harassment 2022, there are 994 complains are filed from woman in the private sector. There are 445 complains are registered from man in the private sector in the 2022. In the nutshell, harassment is not limited to woman only. All the genders of a society are facing this social evil.

Besides of that, both man and woman are equally affected by any disaster. Disaster destroy the economy of any state.

Disaster is dangerous for all the human beings. All the genders are facing a huge amount of destruction. For example, a flood in Pakistan in 2022 destroyed the economy of Pakistan. Through floods, all men and women are equally affected. As a result, any natural disaster is the major cause of danger for all the citizens. An equal participation of all the citizens in the society serves as a sign of progress. One gender cannot solve the problem easily. When all the members of a society are participating, then, a progress can prevail in the society. According to the theory of Communication by Jürgen Habermas, when all the participants are solving the problem through discourse ethics, a democratic society can be made in the society.

It is very important that all the citizens should participate in the problems of a state.

On the other hand, an awareness is not limited only to woman. An awareness is very important for man and woman. When all the citizens are fully aware about their rights. Then, they perform very well. For example, according to Article 9 of Constitution of Pakistan, the state provides right to security of a person. A liberty and safety for a life should be provided by state according to law. So, when citizens know their rights. They perform very well. A subject of any field is not gender specific, a state can do marvellous progress through woman participation. A woman participation is very important for the state. Woman is the building block of a family. A woman participation is very crucial from household level to state level. According to World Bank, there are total 12 million girls are exist in the Pakistan. There are about 2 million girls are out of school. If these girls are present in the school.
