

Rise of AI: The Threat of Jobless Future or Better Opportunities Through Reskilling and Upskilling

(Argumentative Essay)

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement

Artificial Intelligence is a rising threat for the employees in the future because it is taking their place in all fields but this threat can be overcome by using them as in getting more suitable jobs by reskilling and upskilling and in many fields like education, to get good scores in exams for getting an attractive employment.

2. How the AI is threatening the employees and ^{also} helping them in reskilling and upskilling.
3. AI the threat for people's jobs and hence cause depressing situation in many fields (Thesis) &
 - a. AI is replacing men in the field of business by adopting the managerial skills
 - b. Eliminating the creative thinking skills of the students, a threat to future of any country.

c. Replacing the players in the games

d. In industry, AI made Robots can work solely instead of ten men.

e. Robots are being used in homes as a cook or servers replacing the humans.

f. AI can be a good mentor and can teach the students in more good manner than humans

g. AI can be used as the benefit for humans in employment instead of replacing them. (Anti-Thesis)

a. Humans can get the managerial skills from AI and can make their work more productive and fast

b. AI is not eliminating the creative thinking of the students but providing them the material that can be used in their academia

c. The emotions which men can produce in the spectators as a player, the machines could not

d. In industries, AI helped men and also is helping in reskilling and upskilling instead of losing their jobs

- e. In homes, the robotics are not affordable and are out of reach from common man so these are here but in a very small range.
- f. When a teacher could not understand the mood of student now he could teach. ~~Also~~ machines don't have emotions and senses.
5. AI by its moderate use can be used as for the benefit of the human race (synthesis)
- a. AI is helping and is made for the purpose of helping
- b. The moderate use of AI by students can be proved to enhance the creative thinking of the students
- c. The players can use the machines for practice and can perform well in the ground.
- d. Better use in the industry, AI can be proved as a helper instead of job loser.
- e. In future or In the utopian world the robotics can replace men but not in real estate
- f. Teachers can take help from the Robotics or AI to make their performance more better before the student
- g. Conclusion.