Every age bring along it many such issues that are not liked by some but there have to be accepted. Sometimes nature, in order to test us, brings a lot before us that neither mean anything to us nor we anything to do with those. But it has to be made a part of life. Similarly, Each century has been brought ~~along~~ such changes ~~that~~ that were unknown in comparison to previous centuries. The advancement in science and arts has given a lot natural to man that can be termed the direct of intellectual and economic activities. Nature gives us fruits at the same time bounds us to dispose of peels in proper way, otherwise environment will further pollute.
