

Topic:

Price Hike in Pakistan's Causes and Consequences

OUTLINE

Introduction:

Thesis Statement:

In Pakistan, due to stagnant of economic sector price hike becomes challenge. There are multiple challenges due to inflation rate reach at highest level in Pakistan history. As a result, poor consequences of price hike faced by people.

2 Price hike ~~challenges~~ in Pakistan and its cause and consequences

3 Causes that lead to price hike in Pakistan.

- a) Successive poor economic growth lead to price hike
- b) Rise in inflation due to import based economy.
- c) Price hike in Pakistan is the result of devaluation of local currency

- d) Huge margin between supply and demand
- e) Shut up local industries pave path towards high inflation
- f) Rampant inflation is due to political instability.
- g) International conflicts is the leading source of high inflation.

4 Poor Consequences faced by people due to inflation in Pakistan

- a) Decreasing purchasing power of middle man due to price hike
- b) Poverty rate increase is the result of price hike
- c) Social Inequalities get roots because of price hike
- d) Crime rate rises across the country.
- e) Approachments of health related diseases due to price hike.
- f) Price hike leads to increase in Brain Drain.

5 Conclusion