

Essay:

Need for serious planning in technical education in Pakistan.

① Introduction

Thesis statement:

World has advanced to technical level and means of education are also upgraded. To compete other nations Pakistan also needs an upgraded and advanced educational system. This can be possible with the help of experts of technology and e-commerce.

② Technical planning for education in Pakistan

③ Pakistan needs massive change in education system

(a) Online portals for students to get educational activities at one click

(b) Cramming should be ended, innovations should be encouraged

(c) Syllabus of every class should update every year

(d) Long Questions should replaced with MCQs

④ Advancement in technical education requires finances

(a) Highly modified laboratories need excessive funds salaries

(b) Experts of every technical field from developed countries and their

(c) 3D class-room are mind blowing but expensive

(d) Students performing innovations should awarded scholarships

⑤ Hindrances behind Pakistan's advancement in technical education

(a) Lack of funds and priority by Government

(b) Staff is out-dated, professionals are required

(c) Corruption in educational and political adversaries

- (d) Most of technical education in ~~non-tech~~ non-native language
- (e) A lot of theoretical knowledge, but no experimentation
- (6) Conclusion

