Title :- ORACLES in ANCIENT GREECE :-

The fear and frailty of man with the mysterious of life and universe led them to communicate with god and believe in supernatural powers.

Which are regulator of universe and controller of their fate. This required knowledge for the desires of gods for that soothsayer used to discover heavenly sign and symbols.

The soothsayers interpret the sparks, thunder, birds movement and scapies of animal. The interpretation of dream and fortune-telling also popular. The most popular soothsayers of ancient Greece were Tarsus, Calchas, Amphioxus and Cassandra.

In many cases God directly communicated with people through Prophet instead of sign and symbol. In ancient Greece Oracles worked for future and directly connected with god. Appolo was the well known god who convey the order by Zeus.

The oracles of Delphi and Dodona functioned with the assistance of Zeus and Appolo respectively.

1) Just as we came in sight of the valley, Jamil met us. "Yes the valley is all very fine, but do you know there is nothing to eat?" "Nonsense; we can eat any thing here," "Well, the brown bread's two months old, and there is nothing else but potatoes." "There must be milk anyhow." "Yes, there was milk, he supposed".

Just as we came in sight of the valley, Jamil met us and said that yes the valley was all very fine and asked us ~~to know~~ ^{if we knew} that there was nothing to eat. But we rejected the idea and said that we could eat any thing there. Jamil warned us that the brown bread was two months old and there was nothing else but potatoes and there must be milk anyhow. Jamil answered affirmatively to these was milk.

2) Miss Andleeb said she thought English food was lovely, and that she was preparing a questionnaire to be circulated to the students of the university, with the view to finding out their eating preferences. "But the students won't fill a questionnaire," said Miriam. "No it's not a questionnaire," cried Miss Andleeb, taken back.

"No", said Miriam, "they won't. As a nation we

we are not questionnaire conscious,"
Well, that's too bad," said Miss Andleeb.
Miss Andleeb said "I though English food is lovely. I am preparing a questionnaire to be circulated to the students of the university, with the view of finding out their eating preferences. Miriam expressed that but the student would not fill a questionnaire. Miss andleeb showed her amazement and confirmed whether the student would not fill up questionnaire.
Miriam replied in negative. and answered that we are not a questionnaire-conscious return to which Miss andleeb said that it was too bad.
