

Date 4 Feb 20 24

Essay

Hate the Sin but love the sinner.

Outline:

- 1- Introduction
- 2- Peace as the way forward for a better world
- 3- Tolerance for humanity at all costs
 - (a) Man is bound to make mistakes
 - (b) Tolerance is a great, humanitarian principle
 - (c) Tolerance breeds unity in diversity
 - (d) Safer societies are formed as a result of withstanding attitude, in all fields
 - (e) Religious tolerance saves us from fanaticism
 - (f) Racial tolerance saves us from the inferiority and superiority nexus
 - (g) Forgiveness is the cornerstone of improving people's actions and not hate

4 - Treating people compassionately to bring them to realise mistakes

- (a) Compassion plays a key role in social connection
- (b) Empathy improves the condition of others
- (c) Compassion can help improve the physical and psychological well-being to do good
- (d) Conscious interconnectivity can protect us from stress

5 - Interfaith harmony is the need of the hour to curb hate

- (a) Encouraging open dialogue and discussions on conflicting matters helps build betterment
- (b) Reconciliation and empowering marginalized communities leads to cooperation and co-existence

- (c) Provision of free or low-cost services for those in poverty leads to people ~~to~~ staying away from crime
- (d) Intergaitu harmony plays a vital role in preventing violent extremism

6- Manifestations of personalities who preached the dictum

- (a) Saint Augustine
- (b) Mahatma Gandhi
- (c) Nelson Mandela
- (d) Dalai Lama

7- Conclusion