

2000 - Comprehension

① -

Multifarious activities: having diverse activities

Amelioration of human life: betterment in human life

it is sound: Refers to something valid to be their advocate: To support a particular belief when it is accepted widely.

Renounce the devil: To reject the devil and all his work.

Drowsed: In state of sleepiness

Gauged: Accurate measurement.

Aforesaid: This term is used to back already mentioned statement.

② On what grounds does Bentham believe that the church teaches insincerity to children?

Bentham believes that church's practice of making children meaning of 1st sentence is unclear promise to renounce the devil and all his works as well as pomps and vanity of world, is insincere for children. He questions how could a child make such promise when the children do not had any experience with devil. Children cannot understand this that's why it is insincere for them.

③ - What is Bentham's philosophy based upon?

Bentham's philosophy is based on maximizing happiness for people and minimizing their sufferings. He says ^{that} people should act in a way to enhance their happiness.

④ - What according to writer Bentham's limitation? Teaches children insincerity?

Bentham's limitations are based on his dismissal ~~to~~ of all poetry.

(and most religion) as misinterpretation; this is his negative side. Church teaches insincerity to children by making them affirm what they cannot possibly understand. The practice of undertaking of their god-parents and renouncing devil works and also pomps and vanity of world is insincere for children.

Q- In what context has the Archbishop of Canterbury been quoted i.e; is he praised or condemned?

He condemned the quote "Archbishop of Canterbury" by pointing towards issues in the churches.

last ans is too short and never ans in a single sentence need improvement in clarity of the sentences over all average answers
7/20