The old man told that across the forest there is a mountain where that flower grows which brings the light of the eyes back through its smell. or ② the smell of which brings eyesight back. But the mountain is very high and there are unlimited rocks, thorny bushes and large stones on it which hinder the way. To go to this mountain, many people came and went back but no such person came who reached / accessed the flower. Perhaps, that is why there is sorrow and pain in the world and human is in search of light.

Every era also brings with it many such matters that are not to everyone's liking | that are not liked by some, but they have to be accepted. Sometimes, it also happens that nature, perhaps to test us, puts many such things in front of us which is not our cup of tea, rather we are not even related to it, but we still have to make that a part of life. Till date, that is how it is. Every century has been bringing with it such changes which were completely new as compared to the previous centuries. The advancement of natural arts and knowledge has given human many a thing which can be regarded as the waste of educational and economic activity. If the nature gives us fruit, then simultaneously, it also binds us to properly discard its peels. If that is not done then environmental pollution increases.

Common people think that a country's law and a person's freedom are contrary to each other. Apparently, this does not seem wrong. Every law puts one or the other restriction on the citizens. If the number of laws in a country is large then the collective restrictions are also more. Due to more restrictions, a person's freedom gets compromised. On the contrary, if the number of rules is small then the ambit of citizens' freedom is wide.

Pakistan is determined for peace in Afghanistan because Afghanistan's peace is very important for Pakistan. In the ~~(2019)~~ historical context, Pakistan and Afghanistan are bound in historical, cultural and linguistic ties/relations due to being neighbouring Islamic countries. These relations are unbreakable. Both are dependent on each other and neither of them can live separately/in isolation from the other. Since day one, Pakistan's stance has been that a political solution should be found for the Afghan issue. China has also supported/endorsed this stance. For this, in this context, China has said that the solution for Afghan conflict is in the peace negotiations held among ^{the} Afghan leadership. For strategic partnership, Pakistan and China should play their role in solving the Afghan conflict through negotiations.
