

Topic: Would the world be better if women ruled the world?

Outline:

1. Introduction

Considering a scenario of where women held charge of the world prompts in discussion both positive and negative potential changes. However the possibility of equality, cooperation, empathy, social welfare and women empowerment in world can structure a fair and peaceful global society.

2. Association between better world and women leadership

3. A possibility of better world under women leadership (thesis)

- a) Feministic world of equal opportunities
- b) Rational Decision makers in power
- c) Mitigating risks of war and fostering global peace
- d) Empathetic world for everyone
- e) An empowered world

4. Women leader might not be the best thing for world (Anti-thesis)

- a) A feministic world of Misandrists
- b) Emotional decision makers in power
- c) Entrenched gender biases and resistance
- d) Empathy is not the solution to every problem
- e) An empowered world for merely women

5. Women leadership might not be best solution but it's surely the better decision/solution for world (synthesis)

a) A world of real feministic approach

b) Emotions play an essential role in making rational decisions

c) ~~Sometimes~~ Empathy is the foundation of solving problems

d) Inclusive environment for both genders

e) A world where at least once women are being heard

6. Conclusion

Bring more clarity in your arguments