

24/1/2024

Translation 2020

Day: wednesday

Education system of every nation of the world is harmonic with the temper of its nation which constitutes, and ^{fulfills} fulfills the national objectives. The nation remains active in fulfilling the desired objectives. Therefore, education system of any nation is that universal training system under which individuals of a nation develop mental abilities and it helps them to build their character. Education system trains the individuals in such a manner that the individuals change the fate of the nation.

Decent attempt.